COMPREHENSIVE ISSUE SPOTTING:

A TOOL for CIVIL ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING

VICTIMS of DOMESTIC & DATING VIOLENCE,

SEXUAL ASSAULT & STALKING

Comprehensive Issue Spotting: A Tool for Civil Attorneys Representing Victims of Domestic & Dating Violence, Sexual Assault & Stalking

What Is This Tool?

This is a client-centered tool for civil attorneys new to representing victims of domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking to provide comprehensive representation and advocacy for their clients. This tool is not an intake sheet or a broad referral list, but should be used in conjunction with those items to facilitate effective and holistic client centered representation. This tool does not comprehensively address the specific needs of tribal communities.

How To Use This Tool

To maximize its usefulness, complete the Referral sections of this tool before using it with your clients. Completion of the referral sections requires individual attorneys to develop relationships with other local service providers in order to facilitate effective service delivery. Doing this well once will save time in the future!

Go through each topic heading with your clients. Each question under the different headings is designed to allow the attorney and their clients to identify other areas that their clients may need assistance with, even though it may be outside the scope of the attorney's area of representation and to encourage their clients to think about their lives holistically. Once you have identified areas for which your clients need assistance outside of your expertise, provide them with the knowledge and information to make informed decisions regarding accessing additional resources.

Ethical Responsibilities in Making Referrals: When referring your clients for legal services, please keep in mind your ethical duties and responsibilities. Many states have specific guidance regarding lawyers providing referrals. For this reason, we encourage you to refer clients to organizations rather than individuals.

Victim Privacy Note: Being a victim of a crime raises complex issues related to victim privacy, confidentiality and privilege. It is important for the attorney to understand the intersection of these issues in order to properly inform clients about how to protect their privacy and how to authorize any releases of private information. Similarly, clients need assistance in understanding how to provide informed consent when releasing private information in order to maintain control over their personal information.

I. Safety: Protection Orders

The client's safety is central to any legal assistance that is provided and a continual discussion and consideration of the client's safety is critical throughout the attorney-client relationship.

1. Does the client fear for her safety? _____
  - Does the offender have a gun? _____
  - Has the offender ever threatened the client with the gun or another weapon? _____

2. Does the client have child(ren)? Is the offender a parent of the child(ren)? _____

3. Does the client currently have a protection order/restraining order (emergency, temporary, "permanent", civil, criminal) against the offender? _____

4. If the client's protection order is civil,
  - What type? (Domestic violence, anti-harassment, sexual assault, stalking) _____
  - Has it been violated? _____
  - How many times? _____
  - Have the violations been reported to law enforcement? _____
  - Is the order registered with the local law enforcement office? _____

5. What, if any, is the relationship between the client and the offender? _____

6. Does the client or offender have any mental health needs? _____

7. Does the client or offender have a history of drug or alcohol abuse? _____
  - If yes, how is the client dealing with those issues now? _____

Local Resources for the Attorney to Complete

I. Safety: Protection Orders

- Who has legal expertise in civil protection orders in the community? _____
_____
- What is the local domestic violence shelter and/or domestic violence or sexual assault agency? _____
_____
- Who, in addition to yourself, can assist the client with safety planning?
_____
- Who is the local victim services contact at the prosecutor's office?
_____
- What resources and/or legal expertise are there in your community for the following specific issues:
  - Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Transsexual, and Queer Clients: _____
  - Youth: _____
  - Older or/and dependent adults: _____
- Who or what local agency provides mental health counseling? _____
_____
- Who or what local agency provides substance abuse counseling? _____
_____

II. Criminal Matters

A civil attorney representing victims of domestic violence or dating violence, sexual assault or stalking needs to know if there is a concurrent criminal matter related to the violence. A client may have reported the violence to the police but may not know what the status of the case is – e.g., whether it is being investigated or whether the offender has been formally charged with a crime. Or, the client may have already received a subpoena to attend the trial as the complaining witness.

1. Did the client report the violence to law enforcement? _____

- If yes, when? _____
- If yes, does the client know what the status of the case is? _____
_____

2. Does the client understand what their role is in the criminal process?
_____

3. Does the client understand that the criminal case is a separate process from seeking and obtaining any civil legal remedies? _____
_____

It is important for the client to understand the advocates from the prosecutor's office are not in a confidential relationship with the client – whereas advocates from community based agencies are more likely to be able to offer clients confidentiality.

4. Does the client have a victim advocate? _____
_____

- If so, who? _____

5. Does the client have concerns about privacy? _____
_____

6. Has the client communicated with the prosecutor? _____
_____

- If yes, does the client understand that the prosecutor is not their attorney and cannot protect their privacy? _____
_____

Local Resources for the Attorney to Complete

Include all relevant information: contact names, addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, web sites, times and dates of operation, etc.

II. Criminal Matters

- Who is the local victim services contact at the prosecutor's office?

---

III. Sexual Assault

Many victims of domestic violence are also victims of sexual assault. It can be very difficult for sexual assault victims to talk about sexual violence. Sensitivity is imperative. Because sexual assault encompasses more than rape it is important to ask these questions as broadly as possible.

1. Is the client safe? _____
2. Has anyone forced or tricked the client into unwanted sexual contact or sexual activities? _____
3. What is the client's relationship with the offender, if any? _____
4. Has the client sought medical attention as a result of the assault? _____

  - Does the client have medical bills or other income loss as a result of the assault? _____
5. Has the client received counseling since the assault? _____

Privacy issues are critical. If the client has received counseling since the assault it is potentially discoverable information – thus possibly impacting the victim's life in many unforeseen and unintended ways.
6. Is the client having problems in school because of the assault? _____
_____
7. Is the client having problems at work because of the assault? _____

IV. Stalking

It is important for the attorney to be aware of stalking behavior. Many victims of domestic and dating violence and sexual assault experience stalking behavior but may not identify it as such. Nevertheless, it is a crime and there are also civil remedies in many jurisdictions.

1. Has the offender committed two more acts that have placed the client in fear for their safety or caused them emotional distress? _____

- Has the offender followed the victim on more than one occasion? _____
- Has the offender sent harassing phone, email or text messages to the client? _____

 _____
 _____

2. Did the client report the stalking behavior to the police? _____

- If yes, what happened as a result? _____
 _____
- If no, does the client want to make a police report? _____

3. Does the client know if anything is happening with the report?

- Is the case being investigated? _____
- Has the offender been formally charged with a crime? _____

These types of questions may raise fear in many individuals, so it is important to be sensitive when asking these questions and to provide a context for why you are asking them. The purpose of obtaining this information is to explore whether the client may be eligible for remedies for immigrant victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. Many people are unclear about their immigration status, so it is important to ask for documentation when possible.
